2023 Long Island USBC Fall Classic Rules

General Rules:

1. All bowlers must be sanctioned through either Long Island USBC, New York City USBC or Staten Island USBC.
2. All bowlers will use their highest composite average listed for either the 2021-2022 or 2022-2023 seasons as listed on Bowl.com. If a league is listed on a Bowl.com without an average reported, the bowler is responsible for reporting the average to the tournament committee.
3. Tournament committee has the right to adjust scores after bowling is completed, should a verified average or other pertinent information become available that was not known at the time of entry.
4. Individual bowlers must declare if they are listed on any published average rerate list, or if any other tournament or association has rerated their average.
5. If a bowler has no average they will bowl scratch, no handicap pins will be allowed.
6. Every entrant has the responsibility to know they are competing at the correct average; all team captains will sign an acknowledgement on their score sheets. Any discrepancies will result in average adjustments and score changes, flagrant violations will result in disqualification.
7. Tournament committee will reserve all rights to rerates, adjustments, rule interpretations and disqualifications.

Playing Rules:

1. Each team will consist of 4 bowlers.
2. Bowlers will receive 90% of 240 for handicap purposes. No negative pins will be given for bowlers entering above 240.
3. Teams will bowl 3 games on the same pair of lanes.
4. Teams may reenter but the same lineup may only cash once in the top 10 of the tournament.
5. Champions will be determined by total pinfall, including handicap.
6. In the event of a tie for any position in the standings, all prizes will be split equally.

Entry Fees: The entry fee is $200 per team. There will be a discounted entry fee for teams that sign up, with full team information, prior to established deadlines.
